

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any person found trespassing upon the lands or marshes of another in said county with the intention of catching, trapping or shooting any muskrats, otters or minks, without the permission of the owner of said lands or marshes, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for said county shall be fined not less than ten dollars, nor more than twenty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or until the payment of said fine and costs, one-half of said fine to be paid to the County Commissioners for the use of the public schools of the county, and the other half to the informer:

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1910.

CHAPTER 350.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 188, 199 and 200 of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Worcester County," subtitle "Oysters and Fish."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 188, 199 and 200 of Article 24 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Worcester County," subtitle "Oysters and Fish," are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

179. No person other than actual residents of the State shall catch clams or terrapins in the waters of the Sinepuxent Bay or its tributaries within the limits of said county; and all persons violating any of the provisions of this section, upon indictment and conviction thereof, shall forfeit the boats and all instruments used in said violation, be fined not less than ten dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, for each offense, with costs, and be imprisoned until the same are paid; provided, that said imprisonment shall in no case continue more than thirty days.

180. No person other than an actual bona fide resident of Worcester County, or unless he shall be a taxpayer upon property standing in his own name within said county of the assessed value of one thousand dollars or more, or unless he shall first take out a license as hereinafter provided, shall haul for or catch fish with any seine, or set net of any description, in the waters of Sinepuxent Bay or its tributaries within said county; and no person shall fish in the waters of Sinepuxent
